

Greensboro Symphony Youth Orchestra 2018-19 Season

Winter StringFest, Sunday, December 9, 2:00-6:00 p.m.

Youth Camerata, Dr. Ryane Dunnagan, conductor with members of the Winston-Salem Symphony Premiere Strings

Performer Information Sheet

Venue Information

The school's official address is 901 S Main St, High Point, NC 27260. However, if you use GPS and arrive to that address you will be on the opposite side of the campus from the location of the GSYO event.

Instead, if you use 604 S Hamilton St., High Point, NC 27260 as the address for the loading dock entrance to the Soundstage, that will be the best place to drop off, and there are parking lots off of this side street.

Parking is free, in the lots off of South Hamilton Street.

Links, maps and additional info online at www.gsyo.org/locations/gtcc-high-point

Wear concert attire to the event:

Youth Camerata: Concert Black OR "Sunday Best": attire of similar formality to the Concert Black worn for the November GSYO concert, but does not need to be black.

"Holiday Flair" is encouraged and is at the discretion of the performer.

Event Times:

Youth Camerata

1:45 p.m.	Arrival for unpacking
2:00 p.m.	Rehearsal (with break TBA)
5:00 p.m.	Snack break
5:30 p.m.	Performance / Recording
6:00 p.m.	Event concludes

Notes:

- Dr. Dunnagan will direct the ensembles as to any additional instructions for break times.
- Break rooms will be available for the snacks; please do not bring the food / drink into the Soundstage.